

Trainee Engineers

Pakistan Oxygen Limited a market leader in gases sector plays a leadership role in adding strategic value to the nation's industrial and infrastructure development by serving the needs of customers in the Steel, Chemicals, Pharmaceuticals, Food & Beverages, Oil & Gas, Glass and other manufacturing and processing industries. In Health Care, we serve majority of the hospitals with their gas & engineering needs.

At Pakistan Oxygen, we do not want to harm people or the environment. We are totally committed to this policy and accords the highest priority to Safety, Health, Environment & Quality for all the stakeholders and employees. We recognize our social responsibility and contribute towards community activities as a good corporate citizen and an equal opportunity employer.

We are planning to hire Trainee Engineer – Chemical and Trainee Engineer – Sales. These are an excellent opportunity to begin an exciting career with the nation's leading gases & engineering company.

Candidate should be good in communication skills and have passion for succeeding in highly competitive and challenging environment. He / She must be fully conversant with MS Office products.

Interested students are requested to be gathered at the UET Lahore, on Monday, 27th May at 1100 hrs sharp for the interviews.

Pakistan Oxygen Limited is an Equal Opportunity Employer